Thorntons Opens New Store in Nashville

The convenience brand continues its regional expansion in TN

(Louisville, KY – June 9, 2025) - Thorntons is proud to announce the opening of its newest store in Nashville area. The store officially opened on Friday, June 6, and is located at 3475 Dickerson Pike in Nashville. This marks the 21st location in the Nashville market area and the 223rd store in the Thorntons network.

Set on 2.34-acre lot, the new store is a 4,400-square-foot facility featuring 16 auto fuel pumps, 37 parking spaces, and a self-checkout stations for a faster guest experience. The store also offers a wide range of refreshing beverages, along with a variety of freshly made burritos, pizza and sandwiches for guests.

The launch ceremony was lively celebration, buzzing with music and games. Guests from the community attended to join the festivities and explore the new space. The first 100 guests to enter the store received a Thorntons gift card and one lucky visitor walked away with a $1,000 gift card.

With a growing network in the Nashville region and a reputation as a go-to brand for guests on the move, the store is ready to serve the community 24/7. It also brings new local job opportunities and welcomes new team members into the Thorntons family.

“It’s an important time for our company as we are growing our brand to serve even more guests and provide more jobs in the communities where we operate,” said Greg Ruffoni, Head of COCO Operations, bp C&P M&C Americas.

The event also welcomed the team from Second Harvest Food Bank of Middle Tennessee, Thorntons long-standing food bank partner in the Nashville area. To celebrate the opening, Thorntons made a generous donation to the bank and announced an ongoing partnership with Second Harvest to support the Feeding America program.
